Special 4-day class! Rendering the Human Figure Teacher: Laura Pommier , Murray State BFA graduate who has extensive experience in drawing and painting figures and portraits

Monday, October 11 - October 14 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. Always wanted to learn how to draw the human form but were afraid to try? Now is your chance to learn from one of the area's best-known artists. Students will be introduced to exciting methods of making figure drawing dynamic and fluid, while maintaining an ease of execution. Individuals from everyday walks of life and some who are uniquely in-tuned to the human form, such as yoga and fitness experts, athletes and dancers, will serve as models dressed in their normal attire. Artists are welcome to use any materials they choose along with the basics of paper, pencil and charcoal.

Also unique to this workshop is the schedule, which will be conducted on four consecutive days, through Thursday. Besides enabling intensive, uninterrupted drawing and painting time, artists are freed of having to take materials home each day.

This will be an excellent workshop for anybody who has previously been unable to attend the typical evening workshops, art students who want to brush up on their figure drawing skills, and particularly those who love the beauty of the human form for whatever reason and have always wanted to make a visual art mark of their own.
